Fine goods, new, stylish, latest designs, most attractive and up to date—at Kirby's jewelry store. Crowds of Christmas gift buyers daily.

Willie Murphy, the genial superintendent of the Connecticut Concrete company, won the $500 piano at the big fair of St. Mary's church just closed.

A Remington bicycle belonging to Mr. P. H. Brown of Brown & Durham was stolen last evening at six o'clock from in front of the Brown & Durham store.

Early yesterday morning the thermometer registered only 16 above zero. Last night was another cold night. There is skating in various other places in the state.

Yesterday's Meriden Journal says: Professor Blackman of Yale completed his lecture on "Crime" at the high school hall last evening, the subject being handled in a masterly manner.

At the session of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held in New York yesterday Norman C. Styles of Middletown, Conn., was elected a member of the board of managers.

Captain D. S. Thomas is to give his illustrated lecture, "Eighty Minutes in the Heavens," in the lecture hall of the Barnum Institute of Science and History, Bridgeport, December 18 and 19.

The hall is controlled by the Bridgeport Historical society, and its free use has been voted to Captain Thomas.

T. B. Dowden, formerly of the "Journal and Courier" staff, has an interesting illustrated article in the December number of Outing on "Tearing Bermuda Afloat." Mr. Dowden is now a member of the Yale medical school.

Last winter he passed several months at Bermuda and has written of his personal experiences in the contribution referred to.

UNITED ADVENT SERVICES.

The first in the united Advent services was held last evening at St. John's Episcopal church and was attended by a large congregation.

The sermon was by Rev. George William Douglas, D. D., rector of Trinity church, who spoke from the text, Heb. 3, 25, and Romans 14, 10.

There will be two more united Advent services at St. John's Episcopal church, one next Wednesday evening at which Rev. James W. Braden, rector of St. John's church in Hartford, and the last meeting Wednesday evening, December 19, at which Rev. Flavel S. Luther of Trinity college in Hartford will speak.

Rev. Henry McCrea, rector of All Saints chapel, last evening occupied a seat in the chancel with Rev. Mr. Means, rector of St. John's.

OFF FOR BAYONNE.

The Three Lads Who Stole $400 Taken Away Yesterday.

Patrick Kelleher, William F. Casey and John W. Corcoran, the three Bayonne, N. J., lads who broke into a store in that place some time ago and stole $400 were taken home to-day. Kelleher surrendered himself to the local police last Monday night and surprised Sergeant Cook by making a full confession and telling where his companions could be found. Upon communication with the Bayonne authorities it was learned that Kelleher's story to the effect that they had stolen $400 was true, and consequently they were held.

Kelleher was tired of wandering about and wanted to get home. John B. McNeil, chief of police from Bayonne, took the lads home yesterday afternoon.

COURT RECORD.

Superior Court—Judge Hall.

The suit brought by Christ church of this city against the trustees of Donations and Bequests of the Episcopal diocese of Connecticut to compel them to give the church a quit claim deed of the church property was commenced in the superior court before Judge Hall yesterday morning. The property deeded to the trustees is in trust for Trinity church in return for a loan of $1,000 to pay off their church debt. The debt has been paid and now the Christ church society claims that it should receive back the property.

E. C. Beecher, clerk of Trinity church, Charles E. Graves, senior warden, and ex-Judge A. Heaton Robertson, one of the wardens of the church, yesterday morning testified to records and transactions in relation to the transfer of the property.

QUICKLY TERMINATED.

The suit of Milo L. Judd against Charles A. Roden, both of Ansonia, to recover a note for $2,500 was suddenly ended in the superior court yesterday, as the counsel for the defendant succeeded on cross examination of the plaintiff's witnesses to establish that the plaintiff really had no case and the counsel for the plaintiff withdrew it before any witnesses for the defense took the stand.

Probate Court—Judge Cleveland.

SENATOR PIERCE GUARDIAN.

In the probate court yesterday morning on the application of Mrs. Mary A. Smith, Senator Noble E. Pierce of Bristol was appointed guardian of her son, Charles Edwin Smith. By the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah T. Smith of Bristol, the boy becomes heir to $14,000 and as his father is not living Mrs. Smith preferred to have Senator Pierce act as guardian rather than herself.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Stanley.

Antonio Loro, theft from Sargent & Co., continued to December 5; Edward Dunn, begging, nolle; John Redman, breach of peace against Louis Fierstein, nolle on payment of $24 costs; Edward C. Waller, theft of signs, nolle on payment of $542 costs; Frederick Argall and James Gaffney, being found in saloon on election day, nolle; James P. Kelly, violation of liquor law, nolle on payment of $16.24 costs.

Court Notes.

KELLY'S CASE NOLLED.

The case of James P. Kelly, the saloonkeeper at 310 1/2 Congress avenue, who was arrested Tuesday for violation of the liquor law by keeping his saloon open on election day came up in the city court yesterday and was nolle on the payment of $16.24 costs by Kelly, as the officers who made the arrest said they saw no signs of drinking in the place.

STOLE A SIGN.

Edward C. Waller, a student, who was arrested Tuesday evening for stealing a sign on Meadow street, was discharged in the city court yesterday on payment of $542 costs.

OTHER CITY COURT CASES.

John Redman, the Harmonie club porter, who kicked Louis Fierstein, a bootblack, Tuesday, paid the costs, $642, yesterday morning and was discharged from custody.

The case against Antonio Loro for a long series of thefts from Sargent & Co., was continued until to-day.

Low Excursion Rates South and Pacific Coast.

The Southern Railway (Piedmont Air Line) have just issued a circular announcing low excursion rates to Southern cities and winter resorts. The new points to which excursion tickets are sold this winter include many prominent southern cities. This great system penetrates every southern city over its own rails; operates solid trains, vestibuled sleeping and dining cars, from New York to New Orleans, Jacksonville, Tampa, Atlanta, Augusta, Asheville, Chattanooga, Birmingham, Memphis. This is the route that forms the great California Limited via New Orleans in connection with the Sunset Limited, the most elegant appointed train service between the Atlantic and Pacific. For rates, schedules, etc., call on or address R. D. Carpenter, General Agent, 271 Broadway, New York.

BEAVER-KERSEY

OVERCOATS,

$15.00.

They are Splendid Value and Every Garment is Worth $25.

A PLAIN STATEMENT OF FACTS.

"Beaver-Kersey" is a rare combination of strength and beauty, and in style and quality has never been equalled for the money. Last year, to introduce these superb Overcoats, we sold them at the exceptionally low price named above, and the enormous sale of them induces us to continue the same this season, although similar goods are sold everywhere for $25.00.

Previous to our wholesale house acquiring the exclusive control of this wonderful fabric, it was never offered to the public except by custom tailors at exorbitant prices.

Fashioned by our own skilled workmen, with custom trimmings, we commend them to our patrons as a rare bargain.

Colors are Black, Blue and Brown. Sizes from 34 to 50. In regulars, longs and stouts.
